10. The Board of Governors may, from time to time, make, amend and repeal regulations for the governance of the membership.

HEAD OFFICE

11. The head office of CBOM shall be located at the City of Markham in the Province of Ontario, Canada, at the place therein where the business of CBOM may from time to time be carried on.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

12. The property and business of CBOM shall be managed by a board of directors, made up of not less than five and not more than eight directors, hereinafter referred to as the "Board of Governors" or the "Board" and individually as a "Governor", of whom a majority shall constitute a quorum.
13. Governors shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting of members, to hold office for a term of two years. Governors shall be eligible for re-election at the first annual meeting of members following the expiration of their term.
14. The office of Governor shall be automatically vacated:
 - (a) if a Governor shall resign office by delivering a written resignation to the Secretary-Treasurer of CBOM; or
 - (b) if at a special meeting of members a resolution is passed by a majority of the voting members present at the meeting that the Governor be removed from office.

If any vacancy shall occur on the Board, the remaining Governors may by resolution fill the vacancy with a person in good standing on the books of CBOM as a member. Any Governor appointed or elected to fill any such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of the Governor who ceased to be a Governor and who caused such vacancy.

15. Meetings of the Board of Governors may be held at any time and place determined by the Governors provided that five days' notice of such meeting shall be sent in writing to each Governor. No formal notice shall be necessary if all Governors are present at the meeting or waive notice thereof in writing.
16. Governors, as such, shall not receive any remuneration for their services, but, by resolution of the Board, expenses of their attendance may be allowed for each regular or special meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof. Such fixed sum may be paid to the Governors as the members may, by resolution, determine, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Governor from serving CBOM as an officer or in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefore. The Governors, and their heirs, executors and administrators will be indemnified and saved harmless out of the funds of the Board from and against all costs, expenses and charges which they may incur as a result of a legal action of the fulfillment of their duties on the Board, except those costs, expenses or charges which are a result of their own willful neglect or default.
17. A retiring Governor shall remain in office until the dissolution or adjournment of the meeting at which their successor is elected.
18. The Governors may exercise all such powers of CBOM as are not by the Act, the Articles, the by-laws or any unanimous members' agreement, required to be exercised by the members. The Board may vote upon and determine any question at a meeting at which a quorum is present held in person or by means of a telephonic, an electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting. A Governor so participating in a meeting is deemed for the purposes of the Act to be present at that meeting.
19. A resolution in writing, signed by all the Governors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of Governors or of a committee of Governors, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of Governors or committee of Governors.
20. The Governors shall have the power to authorize expenditures on behalf of CBOM from time to time and may delegate by resolution to an officer or officers of CBOM the right to employ and pay salaries to employees. The Governors shall have the power to make expenditures for the purpose of furthering the objects of CBOM.
21. The Board of Governors shall take such steps as they may deem requisite to enable CBOM to receive donations and benefits for the purpose of furthering the objects of CBOM.

22. The officers of CBOM shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, Past President, Membership Committee Head, Education Committee Head, and such other officers as the Board may, from time to time, determine by resolution.
23. The President and Vice-President shall, in each year, be appointed at the first meeting of the Board of Governors following each annual meeting of members and, subject to the provisions of any written employment agreement, the Board may remove at its pleasure any such officer, and fill such or any other vacancy of office from time to time.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS

24. The President shall be the chief executive officer of CBOM and shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Governors of CBOM. The President shall have the general and active management of the business of CBOM. The President shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect and the President or the Vice-President with the Secretary-Treasurer or other officer appointed by the Board for the purpose shall sign all by-laws and other documents requiring the signatures of the officers of CBOM. The President shall appoint the members of committees.
25. The Vice-President shall, in the absence or disability of the President, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President and shall perform such other duties as shall from time to time be required by the Board.
26. The Secretary-Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to CBOM and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of CBOM and in such depositories as may be designed by the Board of Governors from time to time. The Secretary-Treasurer shall disburse the funds of CBOM as may be ordered by the Board, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and Board of Governors at the regular meetings of the Board, or whenever they may require it, an account of all transactions as Secretary-Treasurer and of the financial position of CBOM. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also perform such other duties as may from time to time be determined by the Board.
27. The Secretary-Treasurer shall attend all sessions of the Board and all meetings of the members and act as clerk thereof and record all votes and minutes of all proceedings in the books to be kept for that purpose. The Secretary-Treasurer shall give or cause to be given notice of all meetings of the members and of the Board of Governors. The Secretary-Treasurer being under the supervision of the President and Board of Governors shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by them. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be custodian of the seal of CBOM and shall deliver it only when authorized by a resolution of the Board of Governors to do so and to such person or persons as may be named in the resolution.

MEETINGS

28. The annual meeting of the members of CBOM shall be held at the head office of CBOM or elsewhere in Canada as the Board of Governors may designate, and on such date and at such time as the Board of Governors may determine. At such meetings the members shall: (i) receive a report from the Governors; (ii) receive and consider the financial statements of CBOM and the report of the public accountant; (iii) elect such number of Governors as is necessary, to ensure the Board of Governors has an appropriate number of Governors, including taking into account Governors whose terms are expiring and the total number of Governors then on the Board of Governors; and (iv) appoint or re-appoint the public accountant for the ensuing year.
29. At least twenty one days' prior written notice shall be given to each member of CBOM entitled to be present of any annual or special meeting of members by one or more methods permitted by the Act. Ten members, provided that at least two of whom are present in person, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members. Each voting member shall have the right to exercise one vote. Failure of a member to receive notification of a meeting will not invalidate any proceedings taken thereat.
30. If all the members agree in advance, a meeting of the members may be held entirely by means of a telephonic, an electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting. Any member entitled to attend a meeting of members may participate in the meeting by means of such a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if CBOM makes available such a communication facility. A person so participating in such a meeting is deemed to be present at the meeting.
31. Except where prohibited by the Act, a resolution in writing, signed by all the members entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the members is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the members.
32. At all meetings of members of CBOM every question shall be determined by a majority of votes unless otherwise specifically provided by the Act, the Articles of CBOM or the by-laws, and members may demand that any question be determined by ballot. Any vote of the members may be held entirely by means of a telephonic, an electronic or other communication facility, if the corporation makes available such a communication facility.
33. A member may appoint as a proxy any other member to vote at any annual or special meeting of the members.

AMENDMENTS OF BY-LAWS

34. Subject to the restrictions of subsection 197(1) of the Act, a majority of the Governors at a meeting of the Board of Governors may enact, amend or repeal a by-law of CBOM, provided the Board shall submit the by-law, amendment or repeal to the members at the next meeting of members, and the members may, by ordinary resolution, confirm, reject or amend the by-law, amendment or repeal.

35. In accordance with subsection 152(6) of the Act, a member entitled to vote at an annual meeting of members may, in accordance with section 163 of the Act, make a proposal to make, amend or repeal a by-law.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

36. The members shall, at each annual meeting, appoint a public accountant to hold office until the close of the next annual meeting, and the members shall, by ordinary resolution determine the public accountant's engagement to review or audit the accounts of CBOM. The Board of Governors may fill any vacancy in the office of public accountant. The remuneration of the public accountant shall be fixed by the Board of Governors.

SIGNATURE AND CERTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS

37. Contracts, documents or any instruments in writing requiring the signature of CBOM, shall be signed by any two of the President, Vice-president, or Secretary- Treasurer, and all contracts, documents and instruments in writing to be signed shall be binding upon CBOM without any further authorization or formality.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

38. The Board of Governors may prescribe such rules and regulations that are not inconsistent with these by-laws relating to the management and operation of CBOM as they seem expedient.

USE OF NAME OR INITIALS

39. No one except a member of CBOM in good standing shall use or apply the name or initials of CBOM in any way which might indicate membership in CBOM.
